

Let kids be kids linky 12/8/14

This week I am on holiday at the wonderful Coombe Mill having a great time, so this weeks Let kids be kids linky is being hosted over at the lovely Becoming a stay at home mum. Please pop over there and link up you great childhood fun posts.

I hope you are all having a great summer holiday and I look forward to catching up again next week, which will be Let kids be kids linky 1st year anniversary! :-)
